OBJECTIVE

I am a creatively driven individual that has a strong passion for design, motion, art and communication. I design with an open mind and have an eye for details. My skills include but are not limited to: traditional art, computer graphics, motion graphics, web design & development, interactive media, and video editing. I take pride in my work and make every piece unique.

WORK

Parr Media / Parr Moto - 2011 - Current

I'm a lead designer and at Parr Media. I create Ad packages and identities for a wide range of clients including: FGCU, OMNI Fitness, Pinchers Crab Shack, and Harley-Davidson's dealer packages. I work in multiple areas of design, including: Print, Motion, and Web.

Mash! Graphics - 2008 - Current

Mash! Graphics is my own freelance company. I've done small studio style work for many individuals and small businesses. Most of the work is in the area of branding and identity creation for new companies and artists in the entertainment business.
